

KILLED HIS WIFE OVER TRIVIAL MATTER

ANOTHER NEGRO MURDERED IN WESTERN PART OF COUNTY.

Husband Became Enraged Because Wife Had Shook Hands With Another Man.

News has been received in Gainesville of another killing in the Jonesville section, near the home of H. A. Pickett, when a negro man by the name of Simmons killed his wife.

The negroes had been residents of that section for some time and were apparently happy from all reports until Sunday evening, when the man became enraged at his wife, it is stated, because she had shook the hand of another negro. It is stated that after a few words with the woman about the matter the man cut her throat and killed her.

Following the murder of his wife it is said he hitched up his horse and buggy, placed the woman in the same and drove to the home of her mother near Pineville, where he dumped the corpse and took his departure.

Although the man has been hunted for diligently by the officers of that section nothing had been heard from him up to a late hour Tuesday afternoon, and they were still on the hunt.

Further than the fact that the man became angry at the woman because she had shook the hand of another man, nothing could be learned concerning the tragedy, and he has doubtless made good his escape. It was several hours afterwards before the officers were notified and placed on the trail of the murderer.

REPORT WAS EXAGGERATED.

Sam Hurd, Reported Murdered, Turns
Up Much Alive.

Sam Hurd, the negro driver for D. G. Edwards on the oil wagon which travels in all sections of the county, was reported murdered on Tuesday morning, and the news spread rapidly.

Sheriff Ramsey, in company with others, rushed to where the wagon was last seen, to find the negro busily engaged trying to extricate his wagon from a serious mud hole where he had been bogged for a number of hours. The fact that the negro left here early Monday morning and was due to return Monday night about 8 o'clock with the contents of his load converted into cash, gave further evidence that he had probably been murdered for the money, and Mr. Edwards was deeply worried.

The negro stated that he got into the bog, and after trying the greater part of Monday to get out, finally abandoned the team and went into Hague to spend the night, resuming the work Tuesday morning.

Someone passing had noticed the team there and supposed that the driver had been killed and his money confiscated, which caused the report to gain such notoriety.

His Condolence.

An English lord used to tell a story of a sheriff substitute he once knew slightly.

Although he was a very religious man, the sheriff had his faults, and one of these was that he had a habit of using strong language without realizing what his words implied. The sheriff's best friend was the minister of the parish, and a great misfortune befell the reverend gentleman by the death of his wife.

The sheriff wished to express his sympathy, but he found himself quite at a loss to know what to say. He sat for a long time scratching his head and puzzling himself to know what he could say to the minister. At last he blurted out, "Well, minister, this is a d—l of a business."—London Express.

Moon Worship in China.

The fete of the moon is celebrated in China in the eighth month of the year, and this lasts six days. Presents are then made on which the figure of the moon is apparent, and a large pagoda is illuminated. Firecrackers and music and family reunions prevail. A midnight banquet on the last night terminates the feast, and then the descent of the goddess of the moon, which we call the man in the moon, is awaited. She is supposed to visit the earth at this time to grant the wishes of mortals. The moon with the Chinese is the patroness of poetry, and autumn is the poet's favorite season.

S.S.S. CURES OLD SORES

If an old sore existed simply because the flesh was diseased at that particular spot, it would be an easy matter to apply some remedy directly to the place that would kill the germs; or the diseased flesh might be removed by a surgical operation and a cure effected. But the very fact that old sores resist every form of local or external treatment, and even return after being cut away, shows that back of them is a morbid cause which must be removed before a cure can result. Just as long as the pollution continues in the blood, the ulcer remains an open cesspool for the deposit of impurities which the circulation throws off. S. S. S. cures Old Sores by purifying the blood. It removes every trace of impurity and taint from the circulation, and thus completely does away with the cause. When S. S. S. has cleansed the blood, the sore begins to heal, and it is not a surface cure, but the healing process begins at the bottom; soon the discharge ceases, the inflammation leaves, and the place fills in with firm, healthy flesh. Under the purifying and tonic effects of S. S. S. the system is built up, and those whose health has been impaired by the drain and worry of an old sore will be doubly benefited by its use.
